tioned at all makes the entire business of immigration undesirable in the viewpoint of the steamship companies. It is provided in the regulations, however, that first class passengers are exempt from all the penalties prescribed in the decree, a fact which suggests that in future immigrants may travel safely as salon passengers.

RUMANIAN DEFENSE, WITH AID OF RUSSIAN TROOPS,
HOLDS GERMANS ON BORDER.

With the occupation of Athens and Piraeus by marines from the warships of the entente powers, a tense situation has arisen in Athens. Great crowds of royalists have paraded the streets of the Greek capital cheering the king and cordons of Greek troops and marines have been thrown about railway stations, city hall and other points occupied by the entente forces to prevent clashes between them and the royalists. An unofficial dispatch says Admiral Du Fournet was hissed by the throngs in the streets of Athens and that a detachment of French sailors was driven back by the hostile crowd. King Constantine in a speech to the officers of his fleet, told them he would stand by them, no matter what consequences might follow their loyalty to Greece.

Volhynia, Galicia and Transylvania are still the points where the heaviest fighting is taking place. Along the Somme front in France bombardments alone have prevailed, except to the east of Belloy-en-Santerre, where the Germans threw two attacks against the French, only to be repulsed.

In Macedonia the hostilities have been confined mainly to patrol engagements and artillery duels. Bad weather has set in throughout the Austro-Italian theatre, and with snow in the mountains and rain in the valleys little fighting of moment has taken place.

Continuing their violent offensive in Galicia, the Austro-Germans, according to both Berlin and Vienna, have taken trenches over a front of one and a quarter miles from the Russians and made prisoners 30 officers and 1,000 men. West of Lusk, in Vilhynia, the Russians attacked violently many times, but, according to Vienna, were everywhere repulsed with great losses. In the southern Carpathians, near Dorna Watra, additional heights have been taken from the Russians by the Teutonic allies.

In Transylvania, the Rumanians fighting near the border passed continue tenaciously to hold back the Austro-Germans almost everywhere. In the Uzul valley they have driven the invaders back across the Rumanian border.

No official representations will be made for the present to the United States by Great Britain concerning the German submarine U-53 entering an American port and the subsequent sinking of steamers off the American coast by the German underwater boat, according to an announcement made in the house of lords by Viscount Grey, the British foreign secretary.

the opening day of our very liberal proposition to wire homes in Hickory proved to be a very successful one---More than twenty home owners made application for service on this basis and as many more were interested and were getting estimates from the wiremen.

Today is rainy, but if you desire to talk the proposition over we will have a representative call.
